Practical Help

Carers Information Service

This factsheet looks at financial and practical support in the home for carers and the people they care for. For information on care providers and respite services, see our Getting Support from Social Care factsheet. Please note that any organisations listed are included for information only and listing does not mean recommendation.

This factsheet is part of How To... A Guide for Carers in Croydon. You can download the full series of factsheets from our website www.carersinfo.org.uk. You can also call us on 020 8649 9339, option 1, or visit the Carers Support Centre.

Equipment and adaptations

Disability equipment and adaptations for the home for adults can be provided after an assessment from Croydon Adult Social Care (020 8726 6500, www.croydon.gov.uk) or Croydon Health Services. The assessment will usually be carried out by an occupational therapist (OT). The person you care for may be placed on a waiting list, though urgent cases will be assessed more quickly. To request an assessment, contact Croydon Adult Social Care (see contact details above).

If Croydon Adult Social Care agrees that an item of equipment or a minor adaptation is essential, it should be provided free of charge. There may be a charge for non-essential equipment. If a major adaptation is agreed, the person you care for may be financially assessed to see if they need to contribute towards the cost. Loaned equipment is available free of charge, but supplies are limited and there is a waiting list for some items.

If you look after a child with a permanent and substantial disability who requires essential equipment or home adaptations, health trust staff will assess your child's needs and organise the appropriate services. For more information contact Croydon Children's Community Health Services on 020 8274 6850.

You can also buy equipment yourself, including second-hand. Before making a purchase, make sure you know what the person's needs are and that you get the right advice.

The AskSARA tool allows you to get advice on equipment by answering an online questionnaire: www.asksara.dlf.org.uk.

To help you make your choice, check whether any equipment you buy meets British Standards - if it does, it will have the British Standards Institute (BSI) Kitemark. You can find more information and advice at the YourCare Centre, or by talking to a physiotherapist or occupational therapist.

Priority Services Register (PSR)

Scheme run by energy suppliers offering additional free services to disabled customers, customers with a long-term illness and customers receiving a pension. Services may include: moving the meter to make it easier to read, free quarterly meter reading, bills sent to a carer, annual safety checks and priority reconnection in case of any disruption of supply. Utility bills can be provided in large print, Braille or audio. Each energy supplier has its own Priority Services Register. Customers who receive gas and electricity from different suppliers will need to register with each company.

To be eligible for the PSR free annual gas safety check, you must receive a means-tested benefit such as Pension Credit or Income Support. You must also meet one of the following criteria: live alone; live with other adults who are aged over 60; have a disability or a long-term illness; or live with a child aged under five.

Warm Home Discount

The Warm Home Discount replaces the previous social tariff system which gave 'vulnerable' customers a discount on gas and electricity bills. Under the scheme, you can receive a £140 discount on electricity bills if your energy supplier is part of the scheme, your name (or partner's name) is on your energy bills and you receive the Guarantee Credit element of Pension Credit. If eligible, you should automatically receive the discount. Even if you are not automatically eligible, some energy suppliers have broader eligibility criteria; for example, you may be eligible if you are on a low income and receive certain means-tested benefits. Check with your energy supplier for more information.
